ABOUT “OPEN FIELDS”

WHO WOULD HAVE THOUGHT THAT MUSIC BY A FLUTE, BASS AND DRUMS TRIO COULD BE SO COLORFUL? SO DIVERSE AND DIFFERENT AND SO FULL OF DRIVE AND EMOTION?

Hadar and her musicians are pushed to find other ways of expression and communication and to go beyond the boundaries of their instruments – the flute becomes the harmonic and rhythmic instrument, the double bass becomes an equal melodic instrument and the drums wrap it all up with an array of sounds and earthy grooves.

The album is also colored by the touching playing of the world renowned pianist Chano Dominguez as a special guest.

Hadar's music takes you by surprise- it takes you on a journey of excitement and longing, at times intense and then so clear and simple. “Open Fields” is an album of beautiful songs; of powerful heartfelt melodies with unadulterated freedom.

“Several worlds meet (in Noiberg’s music)... the warm, romantic sound and the precise counterpoint of European classical music; the thump and the controlled improvisational passion of American jazz and the colorful depth of Middle Eastern music. Compositionally Noiberg has an outstanding talent for catchy melodies.”

Süddeutsche Zeitung

“The Hadar Noiberg trio has an unconventional balance between jazz and world music. Their music is very catchy and grooving, yet never loses its complexity.”

Suedkurier

Rhein-Neckar-Zeitung

ABOUT HADAR NOIBERG

ASCAP AWARD WINNING FLUTIST AND COMPOSER, HADAR NOIBERG, IS PUSHING THE BOUNDARIES OF WHAT IS MEANT TO BE A GAY FEMALE MUSICIAN AND BANDBLEADER IN TODAY’S EVER-CHANGING WORLD.

From Classical music to jazz, Brazilian choro to Middle Eastern Music, Hadar’s eclectic musical background and experience has led her to create her own style that fuses all those influences seamlessly.

With her exceptional trio she has been touring internationally since 2010 in the US, Canada, Brazil, Europe, Taiwan and Israel. Now she is about to release her 3rd album as a bandleader. “Open Fields” derives from Hadar’s Israeli roots mixed to her worldwide influences to create her own innovative style and extremely melodic instrumental pieces Hadar calls “songs”. The album features Eduardo Belo on Double bass, Amir Bar-Akiva on the drums and special guest, world renowned pianist, Chano Dominguez.

Dominguez and Noiberg also have a new duo project where they share their musical languages and craft a new way for the various musical traditions of the mediterranean to interact.

After working with such acclaimed artists such as Yemen Blues, Dave Valentin, Anat Cohen, Omer Avital and performing in venues and festivals as Blue Note, WOMEX, Discover Jazz Festival, Dizzy’s Club Coca-Cola, Babel Med Music, Roskilde Festival, “A” Trane, Central Park SummerStage, to name a few, Noiberg sets out to create a new musical experience that is unique to her.

Hadar has come a long way since moving to NY at 21 and now she has made a name for herself in the Jazz and world music scenes in NY and internationally. Her artistry and spirit take the audience on a journey to their inner self and brings healing and joy.

"...It was a night full of intense rhythms, passionate soul, and forward-thinking Jazz at its best and most creative. A very unique and intriguing world Jazz program by one of the rising stars of Jazz flute..."
